

Bishop Frade's 2011 Pilgrimage to Greece and Turkey

Bishop Leo Frade and his wife, Diana, will lead will lead a pilgrimage to Greece and Turkey, Mar. 13-25, 2011.

The Holy Land pilgrimage previously scheduled for January of next year has been canceled, due to low registration. There seems to be greater interest in the March pilgrimage, which will follow in the footsteps of St. Paul and St. John, Frade said.

The trip will trace St. Paul's journeys to Athens, Thessaloniki, Corinth and Ephesus, and will offer a trip to the island of Patmos, where St. John wrote the Apocalypse. Part of the trip will be a four-day cruise that takes the pilgrims not only to Ephesus, where they will visit the site traditionally thought to be the house of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and to Patmos, but also to Mykonos, Rhodes, Santorini and Crete, where they will visit the Minoan palace of Knossos. Here's the complete itinerary.

The cost of this trip is $4,125 per person, double occupancy; this includes a $300 tax-deductible donation to Our Little Roses Ministries.
